Unique daylily gardens around Findlay in Northwest Ohio

AHS Daylily Ambassador

Self-guided tour of six gardens, each with its own special personality.

A. Sharon & Ron DeCooman – Rural farm featuring 1200 registered cultivars, many for sale. Emphasis on tall, large flowered daylilies. Many newer varieties by Reed, Davisson, Gossard, Murphy, Holmes, and Bachman. Extensive hybridizing program has produced thousands of seedlings on display in open fields. AHS member.

D. Linda & David Spahr – Classic country garden surrounding a white farm house at a bend in the road. Many daylilies (old and new) mixed with hostas, perennials, and annuals. Many double cultivars, as well as numerous tall and late bloomers. AHS member.

Fri, July 6 10 - 6
Sat, July 7 10 - 6
Sun, July 8 Noon - 6
FREE event

B. Mike & Denise Anders – 2000-plus registered cultivars and seedlings on a half-acre city lot. Mostly large-flowering classic forms. Substantial collection of cultivars by Moldovan, Woodhall, and Valente. Also features numerous hostas and a wide collection of garden art. AHS member.

F. McClelland's Daylilies (Keith & Becky McClelland) – 500+ cultivars, older and newer, and planted in raised beds creating the visual impact of a sea of color across a one-acre garden that includes about 150 hostas. Emphasis on extra large spiders and doubles, very early through very late bloomers, many for sale. AHS member.
Public restroom.

C. Perennial Plant Peddler (Ann & George Brickner) – 1200 registered cultivars and seedlings in AHS Display Garden, many for sale. All sizes, shapes and forms. Numerous newly registered daylilies. Extensive display gardens also include 200 hostas, 250 irises & over 1000 other perennials. AHS member.
Public restroom.

E. Richard & Robin Hopkins— Over 200 registered daylilies in several beds as a “beginner collection” located in a historic south-end neighborhood. An assortment of hostas as well as various perennials and annuals surround the Victorian house and original carriage house which were built in 1874. Water features, garden art, and a small chicken coop blend with the numerous plants.
